

Beach Cleaning

With Lake Michigan levels continuing to rise, shoreline erosion is placing a tremendous amount of debris in the water. Each week and sometimes daily, strong winds wash hundreds of yards of material onto our beaches. The Department of Public Works are checking the beaches daily and working hard to keep them as clean as possible.

Jeffrey W. Mikula
Public Works Director
City of Manistee

